REFERENCE: GADSL: Polypropylene

This letter is in response to your request for INVISTA Polypropylene to provide you with information as it relates to the polypropylene resin P4C5Z-027.

INVISTA Polypropylene does not intentionally use any declarable substances above the Global Automotive Declarable Substance List (GADSL) threshold values for P4C5Z-027. INVISTA Polypropylene does not test each raw material or product we produce for these substances.

Ultimately, customers must make their own determination that their use of our product(s) is safe, lawful, and technically suitable for their intended application(s). If you have any other questions please contact me at (903) 239-5332 or blair.colby@invista.com.

Regards,
